SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Salted his second rally here by chasing over eight runs with hitting after they had the rear of an 8 to 1 score. An additional tally frame and ninth innings gave the game, 10 to 8. Rallies pretty dished out by the Bees and far between and shut-out league records for two stunts as have been pulled off by Laker against the Seals. Laker landed on Coumbe and the eighth for eight runs. After it was their second in the series and gives them nine games played on the far.

WEBER TO VIE WITH BRIGHAM

Dual Track Meet Will Be Featured Friday at Local Park

Weber Normal college track and field artists will get a chance to show their ability at Lorin Farr park Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock when they meet the Box Elder High school combination. The Wildcats have been working hard during the past three weeks and are reported to be in good condition.

Coach Watson announced today that all of his men would have a chance to display their ability in the meet. The Box Elder team warriors recently defeated the Davis High athletes in a dual meet by a big score. Coach Earl Ferguson of the Box Elder outfit has some nifty performers and is expecting another victory. Merlin Stevenson, former University of Utah athlete star is siding Coach Watson at Weber with his track charges. The loss of Lindsay in the sprints will hamper the chances of the Varsity but with three other speedy youngsters the coaches are confident that the Wildcats will be well represented.

Inning, but fell short of tying the score or winning the game.

'KID' WEDGE IN ARIZONA AGAIN

Prize Fighter Forced By T. B. to Abandon His Harvard Course

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 27.—Frederick R. ("Kid") Wedge, former prize fighter of Arizona, who came here last winter to enter the Harvard graduate school, making the trip in box cars, has abandoned his college course and returned to Arizona, suffering from tuberculosis.

Wedge leaped into the limelight overnight by transforming himself, after having reached the age of 30 years from a prize fighter and lumberjack to a university graduate and teacher. After successfully acting as a high school principal in Arizona, he decided to enter Harvard in quest of a degree in philosophy. He arrived here in February, after having "beat his way" across the continent, but found that his troubles had just begun. Harvard authorities debated for a long time over his admission, but finally gave him his opportunity. The student, despite scholastic handicaps, had stood well in his classes on the way towards the coveted degree when the disease which he thought he had conquered, struck him again. Wedge's wife and family await him in Arizona, where he will begin again another fight for life. He said before leaving that he would return to Cambridge to finish his course.

FRANK TROEH HIGH IN SOUTHERN MATCH

CLARKSDALE, Miss., April 27.—Frank Troeh, of Vanover, Wash., carried off high gun honors at the Cotton Belt championship shoot, which closed here Wednesday, by turning in a score under unfavorable weather conditions of 770 out of a possible 800 targets for the entire shoot.

QUERIES... OF ALL SORTS ABOUT SPORT

Please give me the dope on what some of the old-time stars are now doing. I have in mind Hans Wagner, Larry Lajoie, Willie Keeler, Jimmy Collins, Jimmy McAleer and Cy Young—Veteran.

Since actively retiring from baseball, Hans Wagner has dabbled in several business ventures. He resides in Pittsburgh. For several years he has coached the Carnegie Tech baseball team. I understand that he is at present promoting a sporting goods store that will be under his direction.

Larry Lajoie is living in Cleveland. He doesn't look a day older than when he retired from baseball. Larry invested his money well, is prosperous and holds down a responsible position with a prominent fire concern.

Willie Keeler resides in Brooklyn. He is said to be in poor health. Once regarded as one of the wealthiest players in the game, he is said to have lost much of his money through bad investments.

Jimmy Collins resides in Buffalo and is a prosperous yes even wealthy, real estate operator. Jimmy McAleer is a retired capitalist. He is living a life of ease at Youngstown, Ohio. He takes a prominent part in civic affairs.

Cy Young is still the farmer. He lives at Pauli, Ohio, and has a well-stocked farm.

'MY PLAY' LIKELY TO BE DERBY SURPRISE

Is "My Play," of the McClellan stable, to be the dark horse in the Kentucky Derby next month? This brother of Man O'War is being very carefully prepped for the big classic. Reports of cluckers have been available on almost every proposed entry in the derby, but figures on "My Play" have been next to impossible to obtain. "My Play" is being handled by Roy Waldron, a former jockey and one of the most capable trainers in the country. At no time has this star been pushed to the limit, and at no time has it been possible for more than a select few to see the horse at work. Waldron is listed among the more conservative trainers and it is believed he is schooling "My Play" with the idea of permitting the animal to conserve his strength.

RIGHT EARFUL.
He parked next to the tennis court. And said he'd not "klooodle." And so the players smacked a ball. And bounced it off his noodle.

IF THIS PLAY COMES UP Here's Your Decision

If a pitcher starts to throw to first base to catch a runner napping he must complete the throw or it is regarded as a balk, entitling all runners to advance one base. If after stepping toward second or third, with the intent to catch a runner napping, he believes he has no chance to get the runner, it is not necessary for him to complete the throw to escape having a balk called. All that is necessary is that the pitcher step toward second or third.

OGDEN ATHLETE SHATTERS MARK IN SHOT EVENT

Cox Puts Shot 44 Feet, 5 Inches, Breaking Mark Made in 1907

Ogden High school track and field performers put over a 63 to 33 victory on the Davis trackers in a dual meet staged at Kaysville Wednesday afternoon.

Bill Cox was the big star of the meet. This youngster again shattered the state record in the shotput by heaving the ball 44 feet 5 inches which exceeds the mark established in 1907 by Henry Richardson at 43 feet 1.2 inches. In the Tiger inter-class meet last week Cox broke this mark by one inch.

From his performance yesterday Cox is expected to put up a mark that will stand for years to come. Besides taking this event he also captured the discus, the pole vault and took second honors in the javelin throw. He totaled 18 points and was high man. Zinn, the Ogden sprinter, captured both the century and furlong. Robbins of Davis captured both the mile and half mile runs. The summary:
100-yard dash—Zinn, Ogden, first; Thomas, Ogden, second; Love, Davis, third. Time—11 seconds.
220-yard dash—Zinn, Ogden, first; Love, Davis, second; Chipman, Davis, third. Time—24 seconds.
440-yard dash—Layton, Davis, first; Rogers, Ogden, second; Hardy, Davis, third. Time—1:14.
880-yard run—Robbins, Davis, first; Munn, Ogden, second; Brady, Ogden, third. Time—5:17.
Mile run—Robbins, Davis, first; Grayson, Ogden, second; Robinson, Davis, third. Time—5:17.
Half-mile relay—Won by Ogden team, consisting of Thomas, Smith, Rogers, Zinn. Time—1:40.
Shot put—Cox, Ogden, first; Smith, Ogden, second; Lyons, Ogden, third. Distance—44 feet 5 inches.
Discus throw—Cox, Ogden, first; Smith, Ogden, second; Fernelius, Davis, third. Distance—111 feet.
Pole vault—Cox, Ogden, first; Randall and Ward, Davis, tied for second. Height—9 feet.
High jump—Stewart, Ogden, first; Smith, Ogden, second; Miller, Ogden, third. Height—3 feet 4 inches.
Broad jump—Miller, Ogden, first; Love, Davis, second; Smith, Ogden, third. Distance 19 feet 5 inches.
Javelin throw—Page, Davis, first; Cox, Ogden, second; Fernelius, Davis, third. Distance—132 feet 6 inches.

SYNDICATE OFFERS DEMPSEY BIG PURSE

PARIS, April 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Jack Dempsey Wednesday received an attractive offer from a group of prominent English sporting promoters to meet Georges Carpentier, the French champion, in London sometime in the summer, provided Carpentier defeats Ted "Kid" Lewis on May 11.
Neither Dempsey nor Manager Kearns would disclose the terms of the offer, but Kearns said it involved an immense purse and that Dempsey would probably accept.
Dempsey had every confidence, he declared, that he would repeat his victory over the Frenchman.
Dempsey plans to leave here Saturday for Berlin, where he will remain four or five days. He may stop off at Cologne on his way back and give an exhibition for the American Rhineland troops. He will then proceed to London, where he will attend the Carpentier-Lewis fight, after which he will go to Manchester for an exhibition bout.
He will give exhibitions also in Dublin. If he has the time and inclination he will take in Italy and the southeastern coast.
The world's champion spent the last two days in sight-seeing, visiting the museum and art galleries and meeting many of the prominent Frenchmen.

When You Score a Ball Game REMEMBER—

An assist is always credited to a player who makes a play in time to put a runner out, even if the player who would complete the play falls through no fault of the assisting player.
